

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION PLEDGE

Introduction

At MrsGRents.com, we recognize that diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA) are not just values—they are foundational to building strong communities, ethical business practices, and lasting partnerships in the real estate industry.

We are committed to creating a platform that reflects the richness of experience and culture within the landlord and real estate professional community.

Our Commitment to Inclusion

We aim to amplify a range of voices and ensure our content, partnerships, and community practices represent diverse ethnicities, identities, generations, perspectives, and lived experiences.

Staff & Leadership Representation

We pledge to:

- Expand hiring and collaboration with professionals who identify as BIPOC, LGBTQ+, neurodivergent, and individuals from underrepresented groups.
- Ensure fair consideration of diverse candidates for every internal role, contractor position, and collaboration opportunity.
- Maintain ongoing bias and equity training for our team and contributors.

Inclusive Content & Collaborators

We commit to:

- Actively sourcing contributions from diverse creators, including writers, video talent, educators, and real estate professionals.
- Using inclusive language across our site and regularly reviewing content to remove bias or outdated terminology.

Representation Across All Media

Our content will reflect:

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION PLEDGE

- A wide range of property types, income levels, ownership structures, and professional journeys.
- Inclusive portrayals of individuals of all races, genders, ages, abilities, and identities.
- Empowering narratives that elevate those historically left out of real estate conversations.

Ongoing Review & Accountability

We continuously:

- Review our partners, advertisers, and tools through a DEIA lens.
- Replace biased terms with inclusive alternatives.
- Encourage feedback and welcome suggestions to improve.

If you have input or referrals for professionals aligned with our mission, please email info@mrsgrents.com.

Closing

Thank you for helping us make the future of real estate more inclusive, equitable, and human-centered-one partnership at a time.

- The MrsGRents.com Team